

MIGRANTS' HUNTING IN OUR NEIGHBORHOODS

Migrants' hunting about which nobody cares, so used are we to police presence in our streets.

Mass arrests in train stations, in buses, tram and metro stations, and in all poor neighborhoods, coffee-shops, bars, and markets.

Imprisonment of arrested persons, before their deportation by plane or ferry-boat.

LET US SMASH THE DEPORTATION MACHINE

Let us disturb any police control.

Warn people under threat of control and arrest.

Call friends and build a phone network to resist controls.

Explain what happens around you.

Shed public light on migrants' hunting.
